Arizona Tile Introduces New Ceramic & Porcelain Tile Collections for Projects

As renovation and design planning ramps up, porcelain and ceramic tile continue to lead the way as go-to surface solutions for durability, low maintenance, and lasting style. Arizona Tile announces the arrival of new ceramic and porcelain collections that bring new textures, shapes, and inspiration to residential and commercial interiors alike.

New Ceramic Tile Highlights

Trapez ceramic wall tile makes an impact through shape alone. Its trapezoidal form introduces movement and pattern, even in monochromatic applications. Available in Black, Cream, Mint, Taupe, and White, Trapez allows designers to keep palettes minimal or mix colors and patterns for bold, graphic installations.

The Contour series blends a clean aesthetic with rich texture inspired by commercial textiles. Its five multi-dimensional styles create depth as light interacts with the surface, resulting in subtle movement and visual intrigue for feature walls and architectural details.

Haru Tan 8 x 48 Wood-Look Porcelain Tile

New Porcelain Tile Highlights

Industrial porcelain tile presents a minimalist concrete look in an array of sizes, including 12x24, 12x24 R11 finish, 24x48, and an innovative 48x48 format—allowing for expansive layouts and a clean, architectural feel.

Made in Spain, the Haru series combines the warmth of natural wood aesthetics with the performance of porcelain. Depending on the finish, Haru is suitable for both interior and exterior applications.

Compatta Pisé Melange 24 x 48

Salento captures the look of natural limestone with subtle veining and organic inclusions. The collection is available in a wide variety of sizes and includes a decorative Structured wall tile for added texture and depth.

Manufactured in Italy, Compatta Pisé is a linear sandstone-look porcelain featuring warm and cool striations inspired by clay, sand, silt, and gravel—bringing an organic, grounded quality to modern design.

A modern interpretation of natural stone, the Eras series blends the aesthetic features of slate and sandstone as if weathered and worn by the passage of time. It offers soft tonal variation and dimensional relief that adds interest without overwhelming a space.

While new styles and innovations continue to emerge, porcelain and ceramic tile remain foundational elements in both residential and commercial design. With these latest introductions, Arizona Tile delivers versatile, design-forward collections that meet the evolving needs of today's architects, designers, and builders.
